History

The Cincinnati Thrashers were founded in 2006 by John Johnson. The team was originally named the Cincinnati Marshals, but changed their name to the Thrashers in 2007. The Thrashers played their first season in the NIFL in 2006, and finished with a record of 8-4. The team made the playoffs, but lost in the first round. The Thrashers had a bit of a turnaround in 2007, finishing with a record of 8-4 and advancing to the NIFL championship game. The team fell in the championship game to the Amarillo Venom by a score of 56-38. The Thrashers repeated as NIFL champions in 2009 and 2010.

Success in the NIFL

The Cincinnati Thrashers were one of the most successful teams in the NIFL. The team won three championships in 2007, 2009, and 2010. The Thrashers also had a regular season record of 54-24 during their time in the NIFL.

Folding

The Cincinnati Thrashers folded in 2013 after failing to secure a new lease for Cincinnati Gardens. The team had been playing at Cincinnati Gardens since their inception, but the venue was closed in 2013. The Thrashers attempted to move to a new venue, but were unable to secure a lease that was satisfactory to the team.
