Payne's story begins in her childhood, when she was raised in a dysfunctional home and subjected to abuse. As a teenager, she ran away from home and lived on the streets, where she became addicted to drugs. After years of struggling with addiction, Payne finally found the strength to get sober and turn her life around.

With the help of a supportive community, Payne was able to get her life back on track. She went back to school, earned her degree, and started her own business. Today, she is a successful entrepreneur and advocate for others who are struggling with homelessness, abuse, and addiction.

My Cue to Fight is an inspiring story of resilience and determination. Payne's story shows us that it is possible to overcome even the most difficult challenges and achieve success.
