The Great Jazz Drummers Modern Drummer Library is the most comprehensive collection of jazz drumming lessons ever assembled. With over 100 hours of video lessons, this library will teach you everything you need to know to become a great jazz drummer.

The library is divided into three sections: fundamentals, intermediate, and advanced. The fundamentals section covers the basics of jazz drumming, including how to hold the sticks, how to keep time, and how to play basic rhythms. The intermediate section covers more complex rhythms, fills, and solos. The advanced section covers topics such as playing in different styles, improvising, and using brushes.

The library is taught by some of the world's greatest jazz drummers, including Dave Weckl, Vinnie Colaiuta, Steve Gadd, and Dennis Chambers. These master drummers teach you their techniques, their approaches to playing jazz, and their secrets for success.

The Great Jazz Drummers Modern Drummer Library is the perfect resource for any drummer who wants to learn how to play jazz. Whether you're a beginner or a seasoned pro, you'll find something valuable in this library.
