1. "The Parting Glass" (Loreena McKennitt)

The Parting Glass

Moderato (♩ = 100)

Oh, all the money that ever I spent I spent it in good company And Oh, all the accidents that ever I met I met them by the way going away And all the harm that ever I did I did it was to come but one and all the sorrows that ever I had I had with you since your day to see But all the love the world of God To me may now I can't recall So since it's all over to me for that I should be and you should not Ill - till to me this parting glass Good night and till to you all you - by call Good night and till to you all
